

Account opening Process

The investor who are interested in opening trading and demat account with Allegro Capital Advisors Pvt Ltd., need to approach the Allegro in person / through telephone call / email.

Allegro appoints its employee to understand investor's requirement and to complete due-diligence. Please note Allegro reserves the right to accept the investor as its client.

Allegro to complete /update the KYC of the investor.

Allegro provides the necessary Account opening forms to prospective client. Please note Allegro does not have facility to open online trading and demat account.

Investor need to fill-in the forms and submits to Allegro with supporting mandatory documents.

After verification Allegro shall accept or reject the application with valid reasons with-in 1 working day.

Upon acceptance of Account opening form, Allegro shall open de-mat and trading account in the name of applicant and confirm the same as soon as possible.

